WELCOME AND OPENING REMARKS

Ambassador Tomas Anker Christensen,
Climate Ambassador for Denmark, Ministry of Foreign Affairs,
Denmark

Ambassador Tomas Anker Christensen is the Climate Ambassador for Denmark since February 2020, a role he took to help increase the global climate ambition level in the implementation of the Paris Agreement. Before this role, Tomas Anker Christensen was the Danish Ambassador to Cairo.

The Ambassador has long experience in the field of climate. He has been Head of Department for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' Centre for Global Challenges, where he was at the head of the establishment of the 3GF – an international partnership for green transition. Subsequently, he was employed by the UN Secretary-General's Cabinet, where he was head of the climate team with responsibility for preparing and conducting the 2014 UN Climate Summit.

In the period 2015-2017, he was head of cabinet for the president of the General Assembly with particular focus on implementation of the Paris Agreement and the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Thereafter, Tomas Anker Christensen was appointed special advisor to the UN's special envoy on climate, Michael Bloomberg.

FIRESTARTER

Selwin Charles Hart, Special Adviser and Assistant Secretary-General for Climate Action, United Nations

United Nations Secretary-General António Guterres announced on 4 February 2020 the appointment of Selwin Hart of Barbados as Special Adviser to the Secretary-General and Assistant Secretary-General of the Climate Action Team.

The Special Adviser ensures delivery of the Secretary-General's priorities on climate change, from enhanced Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs), fossil fuel and coal phase-out, ensuring public and private finance shifts and the transitions necessary to shift the world's energy, transportation, land and natural systems in alignment with the goals of the Paris Agreement and the SDGs.

Mr. Hart serves as the Executive Director for the Caribbean region at the Inter-American Development Bank (IADB). He was previously the Ambassador to the United States and the Organization of American States for Barbados and Director of the Secretary-General's Climate Change Support Team, leading the team's delivery of the 2014 Climate Summit and the Secretary-General's engagement in the process leading to the signing of the Paris Agreement on Climate Change.

Throughout his career, Mr. Hart has served in several climate change leadership positions, including as a Climate Adviser for the Caribbean Development Bank, Chief Climate Change Negotiator for Barbados as well as the Coordinator and Lead Negotiator on Finance for the Alliance of Small Island Developing States (AOSIS). He was a member of the Kyoto Protocol Adaptation Fund Board from 2009 to 2010 and was elected by the UN General Assembly to serve as Vice-Chairman of the 2nd Committee of the UNGA (Economic and Financial) during its 60th Session.
